I. YOUR LODGE'S INSTALLATION

This is an occasion for your lodge to shine and present itself at its best! It is a time for celebration. Here are some tips for success:

- Following your election of officers, you must provide your members an opportunity to object to the installation of any officer (see Chapter 18 of the Code)
- Ensure that you plan the installation carefully:
 - Script your agenda according to the Code section “Annual Installation of Lodge Officers” and Officers Manual #1
 - Communicate with your assigned DDGM so he can help smooth out the details and plan to open your lodge if it is an open installation
 - Be aware of the comfort and enjoyment of your guests – adequate seating, no excessive waiting, keep the program organized
 - Have ready your certificate of election
 - Confirm the attendance of your competent installing team (knowledgeable, experienced)
 - Have a prepared senior deacon who knows who is in attendance and follows the proper introductions listed in Officers Manual #1. Plan to know when the brethren rise and who gets recognized where and how.
 - All officers must be installed within 60 days of the annual election [Code section 18.01(b)].
 - District Lodge Installations and Inspections has been posted on the 22nd District Website and can be found at <http://ohiodistrict22.org>. Please check your dates!
 - In the case of open installations, hearty applause in lieu of Grand Honors will be given (no Public Grand Honors.)

MASTERS ELECT PACKET FOR 2018-2019

II. YOUR LODGE MISSION

According to your charter and our Grand Master, your lodge's mission is primarily making masons in due and proper form; caring for distressed master masons, their widows and orphans; complying with their own by-laws and the Grand Lodge code and requirements; promoting the welfare and happiness of their members; spreading the cement and support of brotherly love within and without their communities

III. LODGE INSPECTIONS

This is an occasion to demonstrate to your Grand Master that your lodge is fulfilling its charter. Remember:

Inspection is not a goal. It is a snapshot in time.

- Your Lodge Secretary and Treasurer should have made their reports at your annual meeting in November. While some lodges operate on a later closing fiscal year, ensure that:
- The 2018 Secretary's Annual Inspection Report and the 2018 Treasurer's Annual Inspection Report MUST BE FILED with your assigned DDGM no later than January 1, 2019. Forms are available in Grand View.
- Your lodge inspection has been scheduled by your assigned DDGM based primarily on input received from you last summer.
- You will be assigned a pre-inspection date typically before or after a stated meeting to review the Lodge records and identify potential problems with sufficient lead time prior to the date of your inspection so that any irregularities can be corrected prior to the actual inspection.
- Using non-Members for Inspections: MWB Jess Raines is allowing you to use non-members for the lectures and charges of your inspections, provided that you are performing the work on one of your own candidates. If you are using a pro-tem candidate or performing degree work on a member of another lodge, you must provide the lecture and charge out of your own membership. Honorary members cannot deliver any of the speaking parts in the inspecting degree. There is no limit to the number of lecturers, but please exercise discretion for the candidate's perception
- Please ensure that the candidate's VSL is in place for his use on the altar. Other VSL's are permitted simultaneously
- Plan to be closed by 9:30pm, if possible.
- Bible, apron, and LEO and gift presentations are at the discretion of the Worshipful Master and are allowed
- Introductions preceding the degree work must be limited ONLY to those listed in Officers Manual #1. Introductions of others (e.g. your PMs, 50+ members, etc.) can be done between degree sections.

IV. AWARDS NIGHT

The presentation of 50, 60, 65, 70, and 75-year recognition pins and certificates are an important and honored responsibility for every Lodge. These are awards from THE GRAND LODGE, but planned by each local Lodge for its own members

- To honor 50, 60 and 65-year awards, a Grand Lodge representative (your DDGM or a current Grand Line Officer) must be involved to make the presentation
- In honor of 70 or 75 years of membership, the DDGM is specifically charged to ensure that presentation of the award is scheduled as soon as possible with a Grand Line Officer or Past Grand Master.
- Ensure that the Award certificates are properly framed for presentation
- Have the recipient invite his guests and have him plan to speak about the occasion
- An 80-year presentation is the exclusive jurisdiction of the Grand Master. It is not a pin, but is a specially prepared clock. If any Lodge has such a presentation, plans should be made early for proper presentation.
- The 25-, 35- and 40-year pins are NOT presented by the Grand Lodge, but are the gift of the local Lodge, if the Lodge chooses to do so. Therefore, a Grand Lodge representative (your DDGM) is not required for these presentations. Please plan the logistics of this event early in your Masonic year.
- Notify your assigned DDGM of upcoming 50-year or over award presentations as soon as possible.

V. MASONIC FUNERAL SERVICES

This is, perhaps, the most important public activity that a lodge can perform. Our brother's dearest companions have requested you perform this last honor and the utmost in preparation and respectful conduct are required

- A masonic last rites form is available for the living to provide information to the survivors to facilitate the planning of the service
- Ensure a good turnout - contact the brethren by phone and email
- Send out a notice in Grandview
- Rehearse beforehand with the secretary, chaplain and deacons – don't "wing it"
- It is the Worshipful Master's responsibility to respond and ensure that the service takes place without a hitch

VI. MEMBERSHIP

Membership acquisition and retention is probably the greatest challenge facing our Fraternity. Here are links below to the "Replace Yourself" program and other information to support your lodge's endeavors in this area:
